Board of Forestry and Fire Protection Seeks Public Comment on SRA Fee Regulation

Sacramento – The California State Board of Forestry and Fire Protection (Board) is holding two special meetings this month to receive public comment on its draft permanent regulation for the State Responsibility Area (SRA) Fire Prevention Benefit Fee. The first special meeting will start at 10am on May 16th at the San Diego County Board of Supervisors Chambers in San Diego. The second meeting will start at 1pm on May 23rd at the Shasta County Board of Supervisors Chambers in Redding. More information, including meeting locations and agendas, and a copy of the draft regulation can be found on the Board's website at:

<http://www.bof.fire.ca.gov/>.

Anyone unable to attend either of these meetings is encouraged to provide written comments by email to board.public.comments@fire.ca.gov or by United States Postal Service to the following address:

Mr. George Gentry, Executive Officer
Board of Forestry and Fire Protection
P.O. Box 944246
