Hearings Set to Hear Public Comment on State Responsibility Area

Sacramento - The Board of Forestry and Fire Protection will be holding several public hearings across California to hear feedback on proposed maps of the State Responsibility Area (SRA). The hearings are part of the Board's deliberative process in adopting changes to the SRA. California Public Resources Code 4125 requires the Board of Forestry and Fire Protection to classify all lands in California to determine financial responsibility for preventing and suppressing wildfires.

The schedule is as follows:

Redding City Council Chambers
777 Cypress Ave, Redding CA
February 26, 2015 – 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

San Diego DGS Building
1350 Front St, San Diego CA
February 27, 2015 – 1 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Natural Resources Auditorium
1416 9th St, Sacramento CA
March 4, 2015 – 9:30 a.m.
